

Service

"And see that all these things are done in wisdom and in order; for it is not requisite that a man should run faster than he has strength. And again, it is expedient that he should be diligent, that thereby he might win the prize; therefore, all things must be done in order" (Mosiah 4:27).

"I am only one, but still I am one. I cannot do everything, but still I can do something; And because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do the something that I can do"
(Edward Everett Hale)

"But with some I am not well pleased, for they will not open their mouths, but they hide the talent which I have given unto them, because of the fear of man. Wo unto such, for mine danger is kindled against them" (D&C 60:2).

"Now ye may suppose that this is foolishness in me; but behold I say unto you, that by small and simple things are great things brought to pass; and small means in many instances doth confound the wise" (Alma 37:6).

"For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" (Galatians 5:13-14)

- 1) One act of service I have received that has been a great blessing in my life is . . .
- 2) One act of service I have given that has brought me a lot of joy is . . .
- 3) Would you view your ability to serve others differently if service were not defined as doing something for or giving something to someone else, but as giving of yourself?
- 4) One thing that I will do to serve my family this week is

"They might not need me; but they might. I'll let my head be just in sight; a smile as small as mine might be precisely their necessity" (Emily Dickinson).
